ABOUT BELLBIRD

DINING & BAR

Our philosophy is guided by the principles of local, sustainable, seasonal, affordable and accessible.

Our flavours are a contemporary blend of modern influences ranging from French and Asian through to South American. Our Cordon Bleu-trained head chef, Federico Rekowski and sous chef, Steven Pham focus on showcasing locally-sourced, seasonal produce through simple and delicious recipes that often leave people asking for more.

Our chefs and staff pride themselves on creating memorable experiences for every diner; and focus on showcasing seasonal produce that is grown in our garden as well as locally-sourced to complement our evolving menu. Roughly 40% of our produce is picked straight from our garden.

LOCATION

Our location is unique within Casula Powerhouse Arts Centre, and the setting is casual with a touch of fine dining - the menu is seriously and simply delicious.

GENERAL INFORMATION

ABOUT THE BUILDING

Built in 1951 by the NSW Electricity Commission, the Casula Powerhouse Arts Centre (then known as the Liverpool Powerhouse), was one of a series of identical buildings erected to supplement electricity production during winter and power shortages. The Powerhouse was closed in 1976, and purchased by Liverpool Council in 1978. The building became derelict over the following decade, and in 1985, the residents of Liverpool decided by public vote that the building should become an arts centre. By 1987, Council had appointed two staff members to oversee the first capital works program.

In 1993, Casula Powerhouse Arts Centre, as it had then become known, was allocated funding in council budgets for the very first time. An ambitious development took place, and the centre opened its doors in 1994. In 2006, stage two of development commenced for the centre. After a 22-month closure, the Casula Powerhouse Arts Centre reopened in April 2008 with significantly improved new facilities.
