

THE BLAKE PRIZE Director's Cut 2016

The Directors Cut was launched in 2009 by The Blake Society as recognition of the extremely high calibre of artists, not all of whom could be included in the Finalist exhibition. The Blake Prize with its themes of religion, spirituality, humanity, belief and non-belief continues to deliver diverse and complex arrays of artistic considerations from contemporary artists. The role of the Director's Cut is to provide a small insight into a further 100 artists who responded with depth and dexterity to these main themes. The Director's Cut further increases the conversations between this iconic prize and the viewers who encounter it.
